You'll take a simple test and receive a certificate at the end of the course. Participants should bring a notebook, pencil and lunch.

Teen Poetry Workshop

Wednesday, April 28, 6:30-8pm for grades 6-9

Have some rhymes bouncing around, but don't quite know how to put them into words? We'll get you started with the help of some fun and simple writing exercises. We'll have some poetry readings too! All skills levels welcome.

We're excited to announce our participation, in partnership with Pleasant Valley Library, in Mid-Hudson Library System's Battle of the Books!

This nationally recognized contest has participants answering trivia questions based on specific books they've read. We're looking for students, entering grades 6-9 in September, to join our Battle of the Books team! Practices begin in late June, with the regional competition against other public library teams taking place in the fall. If you're interested, join us for an Informational Meeting at the library on Friday, June 4 at 6:30pm.
